$40 REWARD.

STOLEN, on the night of (Monday) 27th. Aug. from Mr. Blake Bryan, of Northampton Co., a BAY MARE, which was traded to me by the theif for a dark blood bay horse about 12 years old, compactly built, Roman face, one white hind foot, with small white spot in forehead, and a very good Saddle horse. The theif is a light mulatto boy, about 22 years of age, light hair and eyes, and professed to be traveling with an officer of the Freedman's Bureau.

I will pay the above reward for the horse and thief, or $20 for the recovery of the horse, and $20 for the apprehension of the thief.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.

A VALUABLE COTTON FARM FOR RENT OR LEASE,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fertilizing constituents, 6 ct. of Coprolyte, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as the character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR.

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

The Congressional or Howard Amendment of the Constitution.

The open endorsement and advocacy of this fundamental change in the government by the late Radical "Convention" in this city, and by Mr. Holden in his address, requires that the dangers of its adoption shall be fully exposed to the people.

The propositions submitted to the State Legislatures are four in number, and, though every one pertains to a different subject, they are embodied in an article which must be accepted or rejected as a whole.

The first is in these words:

Sec. 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any laws which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Now where is the necessity for this declaration in the Constitution of the United States? If it is not intended to confer the right of suffrage on colored men, (and its advocates say that it does not,) what more does it accomplish than is already done? Does not the Constitution now declare that "the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States?" And does not the Bill of Rights or Constitution of each State forbid "the depriving of any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law," and guarantee the protection of equal laws? What justifiable reason, then, calls for this section? There can be but two imagined: The one is, to express distrust of and to insult the State Governments, by denying that they will mete out justice to all alike. The other, to get a pretext for extending the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts into the most minute and trivial occurrences, between native white citizens and blacks, and between the former and emigrants from other States.

It will be observed that section 5, of the amendment proposed, asserts "that Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article." The article, therefore, is to be understood, as if this fifth section were appended to each one of the other four. And the effect and intention is that Congress shall enact that all disputes, civil or criminal, in which a negro or citizen, claiming to belong to, and to have been born in, another State than that in which the controversy has arisen, shall be cognizable before the Courts of the United States. The consequence will be that a citizen of Cherokee or Currituck, or other remote county, who may be involved in a dispute with these privileged classes, will be brought before the United States Court in Raleigh,—a Federal Judge only being trustworthy between such parties. What is this but consolidation, and the destruction of the great principle of republican liberty, that the municipal government of every State shall dispense justice in the neighborhood of the parties litigant, or, in the language of Alfred of England, that justice should be brought home to every man's door?

The second section is:

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President or Vice President, and for the United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

As a separate and distinct proposition, Southern representatives are willing to discuss this section, and see on which side reason and justice predominate, whenever the Southern States shall have been admitted to their rights of representation in the two Houses of Congress, and are heard, as they have a right to be, by voice and vote, upon constitutional amendments and other Congressional questions. Until that is allowed, we are opposed to any change offered by a curtailed Congress. We cannot, however, forbear to remark, that this proposal is minatory in its character, and comes to the Southern States with a threat, that unless they shall extend the elective franchise to negroes, they shall be denied the ratio of representation allowed by the Constitution on account of the late slave portion of our people.

To this there are two objections of the most obvious nature: First, that it is a fundamental power of a State of the Union, never heretofore disputed by any party, to regulate the right of suffrage among its own population—to determine who shall exercise the political power of the government by voting, and who shall not; and that instead of the Federal Government controlling the States in this particular and prescribing the qualifications of voters in the States, our ancestors wisely declared that the exact contrary should be the rule; and that the Federal electors in each State should be those entitled by its Constitution "to vote for members of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature." Second, in the language of McCauley, that that Constitution (like a coat for the human body) is best for a State, which best fits its actual condition; otherwise, as in the case of the garment, you have but to take the measure of the Apollo Belvidere and provide ready-made clothing for all the world. So you have but to copy the Constitution of Maine or New Hampshire, and you are sure to have one suited to Arkansas or Louisiana.

In the freest States, it is only one in six, eight, ten or more of the whole people who is entitled to vote; and to determine the classes or individuals who shall exercise this power, is one of the most essential attributes of the State itself. In the paucity of negro population at the North, it is a matter of indifference to the welfare of the State whether they vote or not. But the suddenness of the emancipation of slaves, equal in number to one-third of the whole people in this State, and in much larger proportion in others, slaves without the education or habits of freemen, forbids the idea of admitting them to participate in elections here for a long time to come at least. And the enjoyment of this right by the few free blacks in the State, prior to 1835, to which reference is sometimes made, does not affect the question.

Notwithstanding the abolition of slavery and the allegation that there is no longer any difference in sections of the Union, this amendment is aimed to diminish the number of Representatives in Congress and the Electoral College in the Southern States, by proposing a condition known to be distasteful and inadmissible; and it would have been more direct and candid to have called for the reduction of representation, in case of refusal to admit negro suffrage.

The third section declares:

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President or Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or civil officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemy thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds in each House, remove such disability.

It extends its disabilities from holding Federal or State office, to all who ever took, as officers, the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards participated in the rebellion, or gave it aid and comfort.—What is the effect of its ratification in North Carolina? To place every man who in any way took part in or aided the Southern cause, no matter at what stage, on the same footing with those who meditated the destruction of the Union for thirty years! This savors very much of the legislation of Draco, who thought the least offence deserved death, and he knew of no greater punishment for the greatest. Not merely are such persons disqualified to be members of Congress and Federal officers, but Judges Pearson, Battle and Reade must leave the bench of the Supreme Court, Judges Warren, Buxton and their associates, without exception, must be ejected from the bench of the Superior Courts. Along with them must go every Solicitor, the Attorney General, the Governor, Treasurer, Comptroller, Secretary of State, County Attornies, Clerks, Sheriffs and Justices of the Peace. Who did not give some aid or comfort to Southern soldiers in the late war or pretend that he did?

And this presents the question, who are to fill the places thus made vacant? Can you find the men not in any wise tainted, to fill all these necessary and indispensable offices in North Carolina, who can administer them to the satisfaction of the people and who possess public confidence and respect? If so, where are the men? There might be found those who could fill the lesser offices, if we regard the strict construction of the language employed. There are many who never took the oath of office to support the Constitution of the United States.—But the number is much smaller who never, at any stage of the war, gave aid and comfort to the South. But could the offices of Judges, &c., be filled readily and properly, except they shall be pardoned and the disability removed, by a two-thirds vote of the Congress? But why attaint them at all, if they have to be pardoned? Why not confer upon Congress, at once, the power of appointing such officers in the States as it deems most fit, so that it could transfer from other States such as were wanted? Where is the difference? Would it not come to that after all? These are grave questions to be considered by the friends of the Howard amendment.

The fourth section reads thus:

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including that incurred in payment of bounties and pensions for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned, and neither the United States, nor any State, shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

The validity of the public debt shall not be questioned! We hope the public debt will be paid in good faith. Our friends in the Philadelphia Convention of the 14th of August, declared that it ought to be. But it strikes us as a new proposition in the annals of government, free or otherwise, that a particular set of public creditors should have their debts guaranteed by a mortgage inserted in the Constitution side by side with the liberty of speech and of the press and the trial by jury, and all the sacred rights of American citizens.

The United States have owed public debts before. Madison and Hamilton are supposed to have had some regard for keeping the public faith by redeeming the public obligations, but no such provision was deemed by them necessary in the Constitution of 1787. As to the Confederate debt and compensation for the emancipation of slaves, we supposed them dead beyond a resurrection.

The fifth section confers almost unlimited powers upon Congress in reference to the internal affairs of the States, we have already examined.

Will any County in the State send a member to the Legislature, known to be favorable to such enormous changes in the fundamental law of the common government? We trust not. Let the people of North Carolina remember that in this proposition to amend the Constitution, sent to us by the Congress, North Carolina had no voice, no representation. Let every candidate be required to commit himself for or against this monstrous proposition. If proscription, chains and degradation are bound upon us, let us determine that we shall take no part in our own humiliation and ruin.

Advice, Gratis.

A particular line of tactics, though frustrated once, may be employed a second time, with, possibly, better chances of success. We would, therefore, respectfully suggest to the Standard the re-production of the game that it played with such marked discretion, under its able, dignified and since historic management, when the present Editor in chief was a candidate for un-provisional honors.

Let it open the campaign with "keeping it before the people" that it is "Dockery and go in or Worth and stay out." That was a master-manœuvre in the canvass of last autumn, and would have been crowned with the success its ingenuity merited, if the people could only have been induced to confide in it. Perhaps they may be more credulous now, especially if our neighbor will repeat the declaration with greater emphasis and frequency.

As the canvass progresses, our estimable cotemporary will do well to assume an attitude of admonition, with its index finger uplifted, and shout often and loudly that President Johnson would be particularly gratified at the election of General Dockery, and correspondently displeased at the re-election of Gov. Worth. This stroke of policy might have a happy effect upon green-horns. Any little difficulty that might be suggested in this matter,—as, for instance, that the mass meeting, held in the Standard office, had repudiated the President,—could easily be obviated by a persistent affirmation that the President's policy and that of the Radicals are really identical, or nearly so. This could be proved just as readily as that the antipodes are not at opposite points of the compass, but really side by side,—a problem capable of mathematical demonstration, provided the man who listens is profoundly ignorant of mathematics.

It might not be amiss to commence at once with the confident prediction that Worth will be beaten at least 50,000 votes. This would be amusing and calculated to put people in a good humor with the author of so capital a piece of fun. That would be a point gained. Nor would it detract from the excellence of the joke, that it has been in substance told so often and made so many people laugh heretofore,—many of them on the wrong side of the mouth!

Any further suggestions that occur to us we will cheerfully give our neighbor the benefit of hereafter.

ECONOMY.—Our cotemporary, the Charlotte Democrat, is right in insisting upon the principle of retrenchment and economy in the expenditure of public money. Our people can neither bear waste nor useless or unnecessary expenditure. We will second its efforts, but only think it errs in the objects of retrenchment.

Perhaps the first point for retrenchment is in legislation. We think the legislation that is wise and necessary could be done at a saving of ten or twenty thousand dollars. If our legislators kept themselves fully posted as to the condition of public affairs, and were to settle in their minds, beforehand, what the State needed, all that is really necessary, could be done in half the time. We are no apologists for needless offices. When an office is to be created, the first enquiry should be, is it needed, and will it pay? If, upon trial, it is found a useless expense, it should be abolished. But when a public office is necessary for the public good, we insist upon adapting the man to the office, not the office to the man, and then pay him what his services are worth.

Gov. Worth we have found an economist, and he is undoubtedly one of the best financiers in the State. We will go security, that, if there is an office in the State or an unnecessary drain upon the Treasury at any point, he will be sure to call the attention of the Legislature to it, at its next session.

Northern Congressional Elections.

The New York World, confessedly one of the most reliable journals in the country, as it is one of the very ablest, presents an array of statistics, in connection with the Fall Congressional elections at the North, that is calculated to inspire great hope that the Conservatives may succeed in considerably reducing the present Radical ascendancy in the House of Representatives. A careful review of the returns of the last elections shows that important changes are everyway probable in each of the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin.

In New York there are seven Districts now represented by Radicals, in which the chances are altogether in favor of the Conservatives. In New Jersey there is one; in Pennsylvania eight; in Indiana three; in Illinois three; in Ohio seven; and in Michigan and Wisconsin one each.

COLONEL DUNCAN K. MCRAE.—We learn that this distinguished gentleman, formerly Colonel of the 5th N. C. Troops, the editor of the Raleigh Confederate, in the times of secession, who is engaged in the practice of law in Memphis, Tenn., is rapidly acquiring an eminent position, in that city, and his reputation, so well known here as a brilliant orator and lawyer, is being extended far and wide in his adopted State. We are gratified to chronicle this intelligence, and feel assured that his many friends in this State will be pleased to hear of his success in his new field.—Wil. Dispatch.

Disfranchising Clause of the Howard Amendment.

[EXTRACT FROM THE LATE ADDRESS OF THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION, AT CLEVELAND.]

"No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability."

The effect of each of these utterly disconnected propositions of the amendment is made to depend upon the acceptance or rejection of the whole. It seems incredible that those who insisted upon thus connecting them could have expected that they would be ratified. The Southern people, after following their political leaders into the late struggle and sharing the risk of their fate through four years of terrible war, are called upon to aid the proscription. Whatever punishment their bodies may deserve at the hands of the government, it is unintelligible that statesmen should have dreamed of asking their associates and followers to inflict that punishment upon them, especially a punishment of lasting disgrace more terrible than any which the Government itself is authorized to impose. If in the midst of their errors the people of the South retain the ordinary fidelity of comrades in arms to each other—the common sentiment of honor which rules all companionship—they will not voluntarily desert the men whom they have voluntarily and steadily followed amid so many perils. They will not accept this third section of the amendment, and they are forbidden to accept the others without it. We believe that the only effect of such a proposition will be a prolonged exclusion of the South from the practice of self-government and the training of patriotism; but if they could be persuaded or constrained to accept it, we are at a loss to perceive the benefit to be derived from it, because no act of Congress, nor anything contained in the proposed amendment, gives any pledge or assurance that the adoption of those amendments will secure the admission of loyal representatives from the Southern States now excluded, or the recognition of their constitutional relations to the Government of the United States. The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed at once by every other Southern State. It is evident from the course pursued by the extreme men who urge these amendments, and from the sentiments enunciated by them, that it is their fixed purpose, even if the amendments be adopted, to still insist upon the political equality of the colored race as a condition precedent to admitting loyal representatives from the Southern States lately in rebellion. The partisans of these conditions attempted to exert the indignation and alarm of the country, by declaring the re-admission of the South without them, at an abandonment of all the dear-bought fruits of the war. It is not for the soldiers and sailors of that war to shrink from being wise, lest they should be suspected of insulting the graves of their comrades, and forgetting the objects for which they suffered so much. They know that there is a progress in the life of this nation, and that there is a God who animates that life, and they hold that fear to be as infidel as it is cowardly. Nations never die in their adolescence. The manhood which this people has vindicated in war will not sicken and perish in peace. The South cannot, if it would, cast off the obligations of events; and under the good that has been done it has shared already, and for a law is irresistible as time must continue to share the common development of this season of quick growth. The North with its sense of justice, its faith in true Democracy, its vigor and industry and vast wealth, must inevitably rule this land, but it will secure and beneficially exercise that rule only by the same process which governs all true civilization—not by force. If fear is entertained that the Southern people may be insincere in what they have done toward reconstruction, and that they desire admission to the national councils only that they may undo it and repudiate our national debt, here is a continued exclusion by means of the proposed amendment, which will not be ratified. Their exclusion cannot be permanent. This people will not suffer it to be lasting, and they will return at last without those conditions, but still less inclined to patriotism and good faith. They are Americans, and they have at least the weakness common to the nation and to them, as it would be to us. Exclusion from the Union and from complete self-government is disorganization, politically and socially. The freedmen among them and the rest of the nation might suffer by everything which demoralized their condition, and be benefitted by everything which elevates it. True, we do not believe the people of the South will violate the good faith which they have pledged to us, in the National Union Convention at Philadelphia more than 300 Southern delegates, holding influential positions at home, claiming to represent, and, as we believe, actually representing constituencies which can make good their promises, cordially co-operated with the North in pledging that Convention and the people that the public debt of the United States should forever remain sacred; that the insurrectionary debt should not be paid, and that the rights of the freedmen should be protected. We believe that the men who made these elections will keep them; especially as soldiers, who know the character of their late opponents, we believe that the soldiers of the South—men who have endured so bravely and constantly the trials and privations of four years of war—are, despite the error of their cause, men of personal honor and self-respect, and that they will not permit the communities in which they dwell to violate promises given in the most solemn forms. We hold, then, that no reason has been given which can justify an adherence to the course which has been proposed by Congress, or for a further continuance of the present unhappy condition of the country. If the same class of men who have established this policy shall be returned to the next Congress, that condition will grow worse for two years longer. Who can estimate the evils which will meantime have fallen upon all races in those communities as well as ourselves?

The Panola (Miss.,) Star says that before the war that county produced about thirty thousand bales of cotton, in ordinary season. This year it thinks the crop will amount to about twelve thousand bales—at least such is its opinion from the lights before it. At present prices this will bring as much money into the country as a full crop before the war, but in the appropriation of the proceeds a very different rule will govern. The surplus was invested in lands and negroes, but now it will go towards rebuilding of houses, and repairing and re-stocking the farm, in order that the next year's operations may be conducted upon a more extended scale.

Richmond Va., is the only Southern city, except New Orleans, which has a sugar refinery.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Sept. 26, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See Court advertisements from the County of Pitt.

We direct attention to the advertisement of W. M. Hardy, C. M. E., to be found in another column. The farm offered for sale is said to be one of the best in Buncombe County, there being 100 acres of good bottom land in a state of cultivation on the place, and within two miles of Asheville.

Dr. S. G. Ward, Agent, offers for sale 900 acres of valuable land, with improvements, on the Warren and Franklin line, near the celebrated mineral springs of Warren. For a detailed description of the property, see advertisement.

Valuable cow stolen or strayed: Rev. J. D. Hufham, of this City. Five dollars reward offered.

A. D. Williams, Ex'r. of J. S. Yarbrough, dec'd., will rent to the highest bidder, on the 15th. prox., one of the most valuable plantations in Franklin. The dwelling-house on the farm is large, convenient, and nearly new.

J. A. Edwards offers a fine plantation, consisting of 600 acres, with valuable improvements, in Greene county, for sale. Situated near Hookerton, in a healthy and intelligent neighborhood.

A. Kline, corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets, announces that he is in receipt of one of the finest stocks of goods ever brought to the City. In connection with his ordinary extensive business, he has established a large grocery department, and proposes to keep everything in that line that is usually kept in similar houses. Give him a call.

James M. Towles, Agent, calls attention to his stock of agricultural implements and machinery, fertilizers, &c.

Pulliam, Jones & Co.: A large lot of Carolina Belle Snuff.

WE HAD no Northern mail, last evening, beyond Weldon. We are thus without our usual variety of news items.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The ladies of the Memorial Association desire us to tender their thanks to M. Rosenbaum, Fayetteville Street, for a handsome contribution.

RALEIGH NATIONAL BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA:—At a meeting of the Directors of this Bank, held on the 25th. instant, we learn that Col. Jos. S. Cannon, having removed to Norfolk, Va., tendered his resignation as a member of the Board, and that W. H. Willard, Esq., was elected to fill the vacancy. Also, that the President, Mr. George W. Swepson, having determined not to move his residence to Raleigh, resigned his position, whereupon Robert W. Pulliam, of the house of Pulliam, Jones & Co., was chosen to fill the position thus made vacant. This is an excellent selection. Col. Pulliam is a gentleman of high character and excellent financial ability.

The Board of Directors now consists of Robert W. Pulliam, President, Geo. W. Swepson, Cyrus P. Mendenhall, William H. Willard, and William B. Gulick, Cashier.

We learn also that the stock of the Bank has been raised to $73,000 by the increased subscription of the original stockholders and the addition of new stock, and that it is proposed to increase the capital stock immediately to one hundred thousand dollars. Persons wishing to make an investment of this kind, can call at the Bank, where full information can be obtained.

MYSTERIES OF MASONRY.—Every one desires to know what is Masonry, but especially what are its mysteries, its secrets. The only certain way of finding out, properly, is to connect yourself with the ancient order and study it.—Messrs. W. B. Smith & Co., of this city, have laid on our table a pamphlet, neatly printed, with the above title, written by Mr. Wm. B. Smith, who is a Mason of the 32d degree, which will give the reader, we presume, as much knowledge of Masonry as an intelligent Mason can reduce to writing in the same space. He correctly says that Masonry is not a religion—yet it embodies some of the first principles of religion as taught in the early ages of the world. It is a good institution—its designs are benevolent and its many acts of charity are worthy of all praise. Yet it cannot and does not pretend to save a soul from death. Christ, the Redeemer, alone can save, and he saves all who believe, upon the plan of the Gospel. Get Mr. Smith's book and see what he says about Masonry.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Sept. 25.—W. W. Lowry, Baltimore, Md.; T. H. Satterthwaite, F. B. Satterthwaite, Washington, N. C.; S. J. Hinsdale, Miss F. Hinsdale, A. J. Woodward, Fayetteville, N. C.; W. J. Hawkins, Warren Co.; D. W. Hawthorn, S. Agner, A. P. Shirley, Anderson, S. C.; R. H. Edmondson, Richmond, Va.; Geo. P. Oates, Jamestown, N. C.; N. P. Crighton, Bridgewater, Miss.; L. M. Davis, Salisbury, N. C.; R. R. Heath, Mrs. Haffin and son, N. C.; Thos. Jones, Augusta, Ga.; John A. Smith, Atlanta, Ga.; Robt. Beston, N. C.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, September 25.—Frank Howard, N. Y.; J. W. Young, Mecklenburg, Va.; Peter R. Spencer, Hyde Co.; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk; Geo. H. Taylor, Newbern; Geo. W. Swepson, Haw River; J. R. Green, Durham's; J. B. Randleman, Haw River; C. D. Slaughter, Danville; H. H. Helper, S. H. Wiley, P. A. Frercks, Salisbury; W. T. Martin, Richmond, Va.; A. L. Darden, Greene Co; W. H. Bennett, N. C; Col. J. M. Heck, Warren Co.; Rev. L. K. Wiley, Oxford; R. E. Morecock, R. & G. R.; P. B. Hawkins, Franklin; R. L. Sallers, Wilmington; A. M. Latta, Orange N. C.

GEN. LANE'S SCHOOL AT CONCORD.—We are pleased to learn that Gen. Lane's School at Concord, which commenced its Fall session on the 3rd. inst., is in a flourishing condition.—Gen. Lane possesses rare qualifications as an instructor of youth, which, coupled with his brilliant record during the war, will doubtless continue to secure to his Academy a flattering share of public patronage.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—At a meeting of the colored people of Mecklenburg County, held in Charlotte, on the 14th, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are tendered to the white citizens of Charlotte for the liberal aid given the colored people, in a large sum of money, to help them purchase a lot, and build a house to worship God and educate their children in.

We are pleased to record such an instance of liberality, and should be glad to see it generally imitated. The best friends of the negro, we have always contended, are those among whom he was raised. The case cited above is one practical evidence of the fact. We have yet to hear of a single instance, in this State, at least, where the political-philanthropists at the North, who talk so much about the blacks, have built them a "house to worship God and educate their children in," by contributions from their own pockets.

THE MAILS.—Persons desirous of securing a Mail Route, at remunerative rates, should lose no time in addressing the undersigned. The test oath is no longer in the way. Blanks and all necessary information furnished free of charge.

Address, (with stamp,) BRYAN TYSON,
Box 1000, Washington, D. C.

We have received a number of propositions from Mr. Tyson to advertise his scheme, which would occupy more space than we could conveniently spare, unless we charged the usual rates of advertising, which he did not propose to pay. The principal reason, however, was, that we were not in possession of such facts as justified the belief that he could carry out his scheme promptly and effectually.

Recently, from what we have seen, we judge that he has met with some success in getting up Mail Routes in this State, and perhaps other States. If we can in any way promote that desirable object, we shall be glad to do so, and therefore notice the above.

BEAUFORT COUNTY.—WM. STILLEY, Esq. is a candidate for the Senate in Beaufort county.

THE CAPE FEAR.—The Wilmington Dispatch says that the recent rains have considerably swollen this river and it is now in good boating order.

N. C. CONFERENCE.—This will inform Ministers and others, designing to attend the session of the N. C. Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, which will convene in this place, the 7th November next, that Steamboats for their accommodation will leave Wilmington on the 5th of November, and arrive in Fayetteville on Tuesday, the 6th.

Also, there will be daily trains on the Western Railroad to Egypt, during the week of Conference, commencing on Monday, the 5th Nov.

I request that local preachers, designing to attend the session of Conference, and young men who intend to join Conference, will inform me of their intention at their earliest convenience. T. W. GUTHRIE.

Fayetteville, Sept. 24, 1866.

Eloquent Extract.

The following is an extract from the speech of the Hon. George H. Pendleton at Flemingsburg, Kentucky:

"I stood the other day in that beautiful cemetery which overlooks the valley of the Kentucky River and the capital of your State. I wandered among its beautiful trees, and looked upon the inscriptions upon its many tombs. I saw there the heroes of civil strife—I mean civil, as distinguished from military—who had died with their harness on. I saw the graves of the immortal dead who had died in the Indian wars, in the war of 1812, in the war with Mexico, and those who died in our late unhappy and wretched civil strife. Old and young, all, bore testimony to the courage and valor and heroism and loyalty of Kentucky There they lay all together, those who had died fifty years ago and those who had died this year. Confederate and Federal lay side by side, their battles over, their struggles past—there they lay in the calm and silent repose of a common death. Their spirits had ascended upon eternal wings to perform in concurrent harmony the duties assigned them by the divine appointment of their Almighty Maker. And why is it, gentlemen, that we, the living, feeling the necessity of harmony, must wait until a common death shall seize us, and until it shall be too late, before we agree to shake hands together, bury our differences at the foot of our country's altar, and swear that, by the Eternal God, to her, and to her alone, we will be true forever."

Facts vs. Theories.

"Give me a place to rest my lever on," says Archimedes, "and I will move the world."—"Give me pure and unadulterated drugs," says Medicus, of the olden time, "and I will cure disease."

In one sense, both of these learned pundits were the veriest charlatans. They knew there was no place to rest their lever on, either to move the world or cure disease. Mechanism was in a backward state, and the medical profession was but another name for sorcery, and all the adjuncts of magic filters and charms of the "evil eye," &c.

But these latter days have borne unto us something more than even superstition and its crew ever dreamt of in their maddest philosophy. In these days of practical science, what was theory yesterday is fact to-day, and all the old time notions become as bubbles in the sun, and burst and break with every breath we draw.

Let Archimedes shoulder his lever and we will find a resting place for it to move the world. Let mine ancient Medicus pant and toil no more for the drugs he sorely needs, for we have them at our hand, ever ready to serve them at his beck.

Refined in the laboratory of Dr. Maggiel, the finest materials known in the medical profession are obtained by any one. His Bilious, Dyspeptic, and Diarrhœa Pills stand unrivalled, and his Salve operates with magical effect upon burns, scalds, and all sores and ulcers of the skin.

In fact, we think Maggiel's Pills and Salve are the wonder of this century, and we are happy in the thought that many others of our brethren of the craft agree with us. We would earnestly counsel that all families provide themselves with Dr. Maggiel's Preparations at once, and keep them ready at hand, so as to use them at the most opportune time and as occasion serves.—Valley Sentinel.

The Boston Post says: "Speculators, operating under the protection of the Freedman's Bureau in Virginia, have been paying off their colored help in blacking box labels. The Constitution must be amended at once."

From Washington,—Appointments,—Gen. Dix Minister to France,—The Committee of the Cleveland Convention Wait on the President,—Patriotic Speech,—He will take no Steps Backward.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15, P. M.

The President to-day made the following appointments: Gen. John A. Dix, of New York, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to France; Gen. Hugh Ewing, of Kansas, to be Minister Resident at the Hague; and W. J. Valentine, of Mass., to be a Commissioner to the Paris Exhibition.

Hon. Henry May, ex-Congressman, died in Baltimore to-day.

The Committe appointed to present the proceedings of the Cleveland Convention waited on the President to-day.

Gen. Granger, in the course of his remarks, referred to the congratulatory dispatch sent by Gen. Forrest and other Confederates, and said the true spirit of the Southern men was there exhibited, and no one had a right to doubt the honor and sincerity of their declarations.

The President, in responding, said: "While the war was a physical struggle, connected, of course, with intelligence and intellect as far as the science of war was concerned, the contest now is purely of a civil character, for the establishment of a basis upon which our institutions are to rest hereafter. The query which now arises is whether the character and genius of the nation are to be subverted, or whether it is to be settled upon the principles of the Constitution. I think we are now at the most important crisis of our country's history, when we are to fix a substantial and enduring basis upon which the institutions of the country are to rest. We are to return to the Constitution and establish the great fact that this is a government of limitations—that it has a written Constitution and that its boundaries are to be observed and strictly guarded, if free government is to exist. And coming out of a rebellion, we ought to demonstrate to mankind that a free government cannot exist upon hatred, distrust and ill-will; that with us the time has come for a re-establishment of all the relations of the States to the Federal government. This I look upon as being of equal importance with any part of the war, if not the most important part.

I have said more than I intended, but I repeat that the encouragement, the countenance and the confidence given me coming from the source it does, is perfectly acceptable to me.—God willing, I will, with your help, pursue the course I have been pursuing in the effort to save our government. I know that it has been said that the founders of government are entitled to the most conspicuous places in history, but my opinion is that the preservers of government should occupy the most important places."

A Few Important Facts in Regard to the Southern Hepatic Pills.

1. They are prepared from the best quality of Medicine by the discoverer, now an aged Minister of the Gospel, and are safe.
2. They have been known for years and tested by thousands in the South, and are specially adapted to diseases of this climate.
3. Hundreds of persons are known to have been cured by them.
4. They are not recommended by the proprietor for everything, but only for diseases which arises from disordered livers.
5. Directions and certificates accompany each box, and these certificates are from well known and most respectable individuals.
6. Correspondents recommend them as good for Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Pneumonia, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Billious Rheumatism, Worms, Pluriesy, Bronchitis, Costiveness, Diarrhœa, and Hepatic Consumption, &c.
7. Several gentlemen state that the use of these Pills has been to them an annual saving of from $100 to $200.
8. Some Physicians of the highest standing prescribe them to their patients, and hundreds of boxes have been sold to regular practitioners.

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $2 a dozen. Address.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE CANTATA.

A WINTER EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.

A Social Cantata,

IN TWO PARTS.

Words by Sidney Dyer. Music by C. A. Cull.

This Cantata introduces the hearty pleasures which render enjoyable the long evenings of our Northern winters. Among these are a "Quilting Bee," a Snow Balling" scene, "Hide and seek," Love Scenes, Comic Scenes, and other attractive features. The Cantata can be sung without action or scenery, but if the latter is desired, a little ingenuity will supply it, directions for which are given. It is easily "brought out," and cannot fail to afford satisfaction and amusement whenever produced. Price, Cloth, $1,25; Paper, $1,00, on receipt of which it will be sent post paid.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMITTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE GORGAS

MINING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

On Deep River, Chatham Co., N. C.

OFFER FOR SALE

AT AUCTION!

Their entire Manufacturing Establishment, Including Grist Mill, &c., &c.

The Gorgas Mining and Manufacturing Company will sell at public auction, on the premises, the 27th. instant, their valuable

IRON WORKS AND MILL,

Situated on Deep River, 30 miles west of Raleigh, and 6 miles of Pittsboro', the county seat of Chatham county. The Mill is now in operation, grinding Wheat and Corn.

The Water Power is unsurpassed, being capable of the application of 300 horse power, if necessary.

The Machinery embraces every variety used in first-class Machine Shops, such as Planers, Lathes, Milling Machines, Trip and Drop Hammers, Rip Saws, &c., &c., complete for making Railroad Cars, or can be easily converted into a first-class Agricultural Manufactory.

There are 27 Cabins and large Stables on the premises, and ample accommodations for laborers and teams.

The Factory is situated in the midst of Coal and Iron fields, immediately on the river, which affords transportation at trifling cost.

Inexhaustible Copper Mines, of superior quality, are within 1½ miles of the shop, and it may be added that the country adjacent abounds in magnificent forest of Pine and Oak.

At the same time, will be sold—

30 Tons of Pig Iron.

☞ In addition to Steamboat Navigation from Wilmington to the Factory door, a Railroad is now in process of construction from Raleigh to the Gorgas Company's Factory.

Our Agent, on the premises, will show the property to any one wishing to examine it.

Letters of enquiry may be addressed to Col. J. M. HECK, Warrenton, N. C., or to P. T. NORWOOD, Petersburg, Va.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Engenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transcenia A'Soie, effective Careaux, with rich Broches,' "Lorcetto, effective Satin Carreaux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH,

GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to me that JOSEPH SUGG, late of the County of Wake in said State, stands charged with the murder of one W. L. Fort, late of said county and State, and that the said Sugg is a fugitive from justice and has escaped beyond the limits of the State:

NOW, THEREFORE, in order that the said Sugg may be arrested and brought to trial, for the said alleged murder, I JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, do issue this my proclamation, offering the reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for his apprehension and delivery to the Sheriff of said County of Wake.

In witness thereof, His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has hereto set his hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

L. S.

Done, at the City of Raleigh, this the 29th. day of August A. D. 1866.

By the Governor: JONATHAN WORTH.

JAS. L. HATHAWAY AND UTLEY

(Formerly HATHAWAY & Co., Importers of MOLASSES and SUGAR, Wilmington, N. C.)

Shipping and Commission Merchants,

171 PEARL STREET, NEW YORK.

We solicit consignments of Cotton, Naval Stores, Sheetings, Yarns, Tobacco, and other Southern Products, to the sale of which our prompt personal attention will be given. We will make liberal advances upon receipt of Invoice and Bill of Lading. All Merchandise and Produce shipped to us for sale are insured from point of shipment, with or without advice. Invoices should always accompany each shipment.

Both of us having had over twenty years' experience in business in the South, and our J. L. HATHAWAY three years in New York, we feel confident we can secure full prices for our friends who will favor us with their consignments.
